COMIC STRIP

Review & Analysis

DIRECTIONS: Fold your paper into eight boxes like in the example below. Using the eight boxes, create a comic strip for either the entire novel or just a specific chapter of the novel. Be sure to include the key details and a beginning, middle, and end. Also, make sure that there is a comic strip box dedicated to the conflict of the chapter or novel.

Include COLORFUL ILLUSTRATIONS, narration, dialogue, & conflict in your comic

Title Box <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Comic Title</li> <li>• Name</li> <li>• Period</li> <li>• Color Illustration</li> </ul>	Narration can also be at the top of the box.
Make sure the narration is detailed so it explains the action in the box.	Dialogue needs to include a "quote from the text" (###).

Comic Strip CHECKLIST

- Title Box: Include the title of the comic, your name, class period, and an illustration.
- Dialogue: Include five quotes from the text. The quotes can be included in any box (except for the title box). Each quote must be properly cited in MLA format.
- Narration: Not including the title box, every box in the comic strip needs to include narration (a summary of the action happening that is written in your own words). The narration needs to be accurate, grammatically correct, and in chronological order.
- Conflict: At least one box in your comic needs to establish or show the central conflict.
- Illustrations: Every single box needs to be in full color and show that you put effort into this project.
